

AFFLE (INDIA) LIMITED
VIGIL MECHANISM/ WHISTLE BLOWER POLICY FOR DIRECTORS AND EMPLOYEES

1. BACKGROUND

Affle (India) Limited (hereinafter referred as the ‘Company’ or ‘Affle’) believes in the conduct of its affairs in a fair and transparent manner by adopting highest standards of professionalism, honesty, integrity and ethical behaviour and complete compliance of laws.

The Company encourages an open-door mechanism/policy, whereby the directors and employees of the Company have the right to raise the concerns/grievances about any unacceptable practice and/or any event of misconduct to the Audit Committee and / or to the Board of Directors (the Board) of the Company.

The Company is also committed to develop a culture where it is safe for all the directors and employees to raise such concerns/ grievances to the Audit Committee and the Board.

2. OBJECTIVE OF MECHANISM/POLICY

In order to promote and maintain sound standards of business Conduct and Corporate Governance, the Board has laid down, and from time to time circulated, the “Code of Conduct” (the Code) of the Company for directors and senior management, compliance of which is an obligation. In terms of the Code, the Board expects the employees to bring to their attention or to that of Senior Management any breach or suspected breach of the Code.

Law

Section 177 of the Companies Act 2013 provides for establishing a vigil mechanism for directors and employees to report genuine concerns and grievances in the prescribed manner. In terms of The Companies (Meeting of Board and its Powers) Rules 2014, inter alia, the vigil mechanism shall provide for adequate safeguards against victimization of directors and employees and also provide for direct access to the Chairperson of the Audit Committee, in appropriate or exceptional cases.

The purpose of this Mechanism/Policy, in terms of SEBI (Listing Obligations and Disclosure Requirements) Regulations, 2015 and section 177 of the Companies Act 2013 and its applicable Rules is to provide a framework for directors and employees to report genuine concerns and grievances. It also provides framework to protect directors and employees against their victimisation and also provide for direct access to the Chairperson of the Audit Committee inappropriate or exceptional cases.

This Mechanism/ Policy is an extension of the Company’s Code of Conduct. It should also be read in conjunction with applicable regulations & existing policies of the Company.

The Audit Committee shall oversee the vigil mechanism and if any of the members of the Committee have a conflict of interest in a given case, they shall recuse themselves and the other members of the Committee would deal with the matter appropriately.
